

SCOT CONWAY

The Martial Life Catalyst Speaker Professional Bio

Scot Conway was born in Honokaa, HI and raised in San Diego, CA. He now resides in Austin, TX. Scot Conway has a Seminary PhD from Great Plains Baptist Seminary in Sious Falls, SD, a JD from Thomas Jefferson School of Law, San Diego, CA and a bachelor's in criminal justice administration from San Diego State University. Scot Conway has practiced law for the past 30 years. Scot Conway is the author of more than 50 books, his latest being The Ohana Way 2.0, the 30th anniversary edition of the original publication.

He is often called "Grandmaster Scot" since he is a 9th degree black belt in a whole-person/whole-life martial art. Scot Conway's passions include law, pastoring, RPGs, graphic novels and writing to name a few.

As a martial arts master and lawyer, Scot Conway repeatedly saw how many self-defense problems and legal problems started off as people problems. He realized that those conflicts and arguments can be resolved at the human level before they escalated! His ability to stop so much fighting kept the best clients and best team members in agreement thereby building a community of genuine connection.

Scot Conway now travels the country and the world both Virtually and to Live events helping men and women personally and professionally pre-solve what causes most of our conflicts and miscommunication. Scot Conway shares his important systems and techniques from his five decades of martial mastery. He helps them overcome challenges with Applied Whole-Person/Whole-Life Martial Arts Philosophy, Hawaiian Ohana (Family), Aloha (Love), and Heroic Masculinity.
